

Byron Cummings:

Notes Relating to Early Field Work

(1906-1933)

This volume contains 95 pages.

The title page, table of contents, and pagination in blue pencil were added by S. Lobo, Arizona State
Museum Library, October 6, 1967.

CONTENTS

1. Correspondence between Byron Cummings and John C. McGregor (1934) and between John C. McGregor and Emil W. Haury (1963) 1
2. Brief summary of archaeological exploration of Dr. Byron Cummings in the Anasazi culture area; based on Arizona Pioneers Historical Society collections--compiled by Christy Turner (April, 1961) * 3
3. Notes from expeditions--Byron Cummings (1906-1912) 27
4. List of material found by the Utah Archaeological Expedition in Twin Cave House and Batwoman House, Sagie Canyon, Northern Arizona (Aug., 1913) 29
5. Correspondence to the Secretary of the Interior, concerning the University of Arizona Archaeological expedition during the summer of 1916 to Sagie Canyon and Nitsie Canyon (March 28, April 12, 1917) 31
6. Notes of the Arizona State Museum summer field expedition--Byron Cummings (1919) 36
7. Correspondence between Byron Cummings and Herbert H. Gregory (December 24, 1927 and January 9, 1928) 39
8. Notes on a trip to Clear Creek east of Roosevelt Lake--Byron Cummings (December 21-29, 1930) 42
9. Notes from the Summer Expedition to Kinishba, Fort Apache--Byron Cummings (July 17-24, 1933) 45

* Published as: A summary of the archaeological exploration of Dr. Byron Cummings in the Anasazi Culture Area by Christy C. Turner II, (1962) Northern Arizona Society of Science and Art, Technical Series no. 5, Flagstaff, Arizona.

- | | | |
|--|--|----|
| 10. | Notes from expedition to Southeastern Utah--
Byron Cummings (1907) | 46 |
| 11. | Kiva floor plans from expedition to Southeastern
Utah (?)--Byron Cummings (1907?) | 63 |
| 12. | McEwen (?) Cave--Byron Cummings (1907?)
Mc Ewen | 69 |
| MAPS AND DIAGRAMS FROM EXPEDITIONS TO SOUTHEASTERN UTAH | | |
| 13. | Map of area near Montezuma Canon --Byron Cummings
(1907?) | 71 |
| 14. | Map of San Juan Valley from Butler Canon to bluff
beyond Twin Rocks, east of Bluff City--Byron
Cummings (1907?) | 72 |
| 15. | Map of Cottenwood Creek and the ancient ruins it contains--Byron Cummings (1907?) | 76 |
| 16. | Map of Butler Wash and the trail from Navaho Springs
to the Natural Bridges --Byron Cummings (1907) | 79 |
| 17. | Maps of Natural Bridges in Armstrong Canon and White
Canon--Byron Cummings (1917?) | 83 |
| 18. | Diagram of Slab House Cave --Byron Cummings (July, 1917) | 88 |
| 19. | Unidentified maps, site locations--Byron Cummings | 90 |
| 20. | Unidentified maps and diagrams--Byron Cummings | 92 |

NOTES. (SL)

1. Pages 1, 31, 32, 39, and 40 are on very thin paper.
2. Pages 4-26 are on thin paper and margin is small.
3. Pages 27 and 28 are written in pencil and have very small margins.
4. Page 29 has note in left margin.
5. Pages 36-38 are in pencil and have very small margins.
6. Page 41 is slightly undersize.
7. Page 42-44 are written in pencil on both sides of the sheet. This date and area does not go along with Turner's report. c.f. p.5.
8. Page 45 is handwritten in pencil and has small margin.
9. Pages 46-70 are undersized. and written in pencil, much of which is smeared.
10. Pages 71-76 have very small margins and are written in pencil.
11. Pages 77-95 are written in pencil.
12. Pages 80 and 82, both sides of sheet are utilized.
13. Pages 81, 83, 84, 85, 88 have small margins.
14. Page 88 utilizes both sides of the sheet.
15. Pages 90-~~89~~ 91 are very fragile
16. Pages 92-95 are oversize.